In the sixties, Fike High School went from a mockery to a football dynasty. In the process of winning three consecutive state 4A titles, they galvanized their community. Six decades later, participants reveal how glory, grit, and brotherhood still shape their lives today.

Music by The Moonlight Swing Band.
Automatic drawing for a new 40-inch television.

Tickets are $10. Purchase in-person at Dick's Hot Dogs, E.B. Sports, & Wilson Daily Times or at the door while seats are still available.
